

The school is easily reached by rail or coach transport.

Templecombe train station, on the Waterloo - Exeter line is 2 miles away. Castle Cary train station on the Paddington - Penzance line is 5 miles away.

The school is close to the market town of Wincanton which is served by Berry's national coach service. This service stretches from London down through the South West. Escort services for pupils can be arranged if necessary.

